

Psalm 121      A Song of Ascents

<sup>1-2</sup> God spoke to Moses on one of the mountains of Sinai. Since He is the great God who created both the heavens and the earth, I will look to Him for help. We know Him today as Jesus Christ, the Messiah<sup>1</sup>. <sup>3-4</sup> I will beg Him to help me, but how can I be sure that He will actually protect me? I believe He will because He is always watching over me, and He will never doze off or lie down to sleep.

<sup>5-8</sup> What about you? Will you trust the LORD like me? You should, because He is a secure place of protection, and if you will abide in the shadow of His name, He will protect you from all evil. Not only that, but He will save you from an early grave. Be assured that the LORD will watch over you everywhere you go, both now and forever. Trust Him, and you will see for yourself.

<sup>1</sup> Since Christ said in John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me," the name "Jesus Christ, the Messiah" has been used.

”